Think about that.

The system is counting on you to go with the flow.

Arrested or ticketed for some non-crime?
Imagine if you were to decline to plead, take your case to trial, refuse to pay the fine, and not only get a lawyer paid for, but also a check when it's over! How great would that be? If you were put in jail, imagine if the rent could be paid and your family and pets taken care of. Eventually, these ideas could become a reality with enough people contributing to

DON'T TAKE THE PLEA DEAL

“Virtually all cases are settled by plea bargains, meaning easy cash for the state. The 'justice' system is propped up on defendants' obedience.”
