

STATE OF NEW HAMPSHIRE

CHESHIRE, SS

SUPERIOR COURT

Case No. 213-2011-CR-00216

*State v.
Jason Talley*

Motion to Refrain From Authorizing Physical Force To Demand Respect

Jason Talley moves this Honorable Court to refrain from ordering, authorizing, or condoning the use of physical force to demand respect for the judicial proceedings. In support of this motion, Jason states as follows:

1. It is a commonly understood ritual throughout the United States and beyond that while attending a judicial proceeding people stand when the Court and jury enter and exit the courtroom.
2. Many individuals find the practice of standing for a state official to be shocking to their conscience for political, ideological, religious, or other reasons.
3. The Cheshire County Superior Court has on prior occasion ordered law enforcement officers to use physical violence to force individuals who fall within #2 while in the courtroom to stand.
4. Part I, Article 4 of the New Hampshire Constitution reads:

Among the natural rights, some are, in their very nature unalienable, because no equivalent can be given or received for them. Of this kind are the Rights of Conscience.

Prayer for Relief

WHEREFORE, Jason Talley, requests this honorable Court grant the following relief:

- A. Respect the right of individuals attending the proceedings to remain seated if they so choose; and
- B. Grant any other relief this honorable Court deems just and proper.

Respectfully submitted,
Jason Talley
