On October 25, 2012 at approximately 10:00 AM Officer Christopher Welsh and I, Officer Sean M Ford were assigned to a detail at number 3157 Main Street in Bondsville. We were assigned to keep the peace while the property was being shown for public auction.

While working the detail I was approached by an individual who was later identified as Ian Freeman. Mr. Freeman was walking around the Main Street area approaching people and questioning them. He was making subjective comments, claiming the property was stolen. He was following the town's legal representation with a video camera and yelling at him about stealing property and trying to intimidate the attorney. As the attorney would walk away, he would be followed by Mr Freeman and harassed to the point that he could not make a simple telephone call. Mr Freeman was also acting in a disruptive manner towards the potential buyers as they approached the property for inspection.

It appeared Mr Freeman was attempting to cause a disturbance by instigating a verbal exchange.

Everyone who arrived, including representatives of the town, ignored Mr Freeman to the best of their ability.

The above report is true and correct to the best of my knowledge and belief.

Respectfully submitted:
